

Imagine a story of an extraordinary adventure with the most loving King. A story where you are the Princess and know the ending is happily ever after.

A tale with characters who desire to take you captive, one who would risk everything to rescue his princess, and a kingdom full of friends who delight in loving well.

Come see if fairytales really do come true. As we examine our stories using 2 Corinthians 4: 1-15 as the backdrop to the adventure of our lives.
